

Being Alert with Divine Inspiration

We need to be alert with Divine inspiration. If we went all the way with God, what would happen? You know seeking the honor that comes from God only.

We must be monuments of God's personality and we can't be this if we are holding back any part of ourselves.

We never can be satisfied with the truth we have; for the truth rises and rises in majesty. We must move on, or we shall perish; rising all the time from possibility after the Holy Ghost order; then God will arise.

A new creation, you are a new creation moved by the Word.

"Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead." Philippians 3:8-11

Let us always be living epistles of Christ, bringing forth the knowledge of the truth; known and read of all men in apostolic order.

If we went all the way with God, what would happen? Seeking the honor which comes from God only.

Jesus made Himself known to the disciples and us in the breaking of the bread. He is with us all the time. We need to have our eyes open. He is always there, to bring us to the place where we are confident that the Lord is with us.

There is such a place; Abraham touched it. Jesus lived it. Paul desired to have it. Have you got it?

Him! Him!

Found in Him.

The righteousness which is of God by faith. Abraham touched it. God did two things. He gave him righteousness because he believed. God imputes righteousness.

"He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore, it was imputed to him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification."

Romans 4:20-25

God adds to take away. He takes away hindrances and imputes the biggest blessing, the rest of faith. God tells us He will "keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee." Isaiah 26:3 The rest of faith.

Jesus had what Paul coveted. Paul knew Jesus by revelation as we do. Not in human ministry as the apostles. Paul saw Jesus lived in resurrection power, in the act with power to give. Paul wanted to gain the rest, so he refused all hindrances and pressed through to know Him, denying all interference.

Jesus told the disciple “sit here, while I go and pray yonder” (Matthew 26:36) in order to go into the place of apprehension to attain. To know Him and the power of His resurrection, manifestations of power, a manifestation of presence of Jesus in resurrection order.

God bringing us to a living faith with a dare to act on the know. That I may apprehend the quickening power, that God may lay hold of me.

He said, “I will not stop until I lay hold of what God laid hold of me for.” The righteousness of living faith. The Word of the Son of God manifested through you and to you. Oh, God, help us to manifest that faith!

Oh, the place of the rest of faith. There is a place in it beyond all. One should not think, the righteousness which is of God by faith, stands with God. The righteousness of faith has resurrection in it and moves on resurrection truth.

The power of His resurrection, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

Are we apprehended for it?

Can we have it?

It is His Love.

It is His Life in us.

It is His compassion.

See that apprehension is apprehended. Don't miss this! Oh, don't miss Him!

It is the righteousness which is of God by faith, rest of faith.

Love will break the hardest thing. There is nothing love will not break.

So, how can you be alert with Divine Inspiration? “In him we live, and move, and have our being.”
Acts 17:28

Oh, Father help us to live and move and have our being in you. Give us the rest of Faith, righteousness and Father that we would simply rest. Thank you Lord.
