

Is His Temple a House of Prayer or A Den of Thieves?

8/13/13 ~4:30am

"My house shall be called a house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves."

Matthew 21:13

Jesus went back to heaven and sent the Holy Spirit to us, so he could live in us. WE are now the house of God. " Know you not that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" 1 Corinthians 3:16

Is His house a house of prayer or a den of thieves?

In the temple they were buying and selling for the condition of their souls. (Buying sacrifice for sins.)

Are we buying and selling in God's temple for the condition of our soul, by taking into us the ways of the world and substituting them for the ways of God? We must live in this world but we are not to be of this world.

"... a house divided against itself will fall." Luke 11:17

"Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God." 1 Corinthians 2:12

Is His house a house of prayer or a den of thieves?

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Romans 12:1-2

Heavenly Father I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, open our eyes to each and everything that has come into your temple that we must drive out, just as Jesus drove out. Thank you Lord for revealing your truth. Amen.
