

Needs

When we are worried about anything, we are not trusting God; we are trusting ourselves. Remember dear one, God's ways are not our ways.

“²⁵ Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

²⁶ Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? ²⁷ Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? ²⁸ And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: ²⁹ And yet I say unto you, that even

Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ³⁰ Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? ³¹ Therefore take no thought, saying, what shall we eat? or, what shall we drink? or,

Wherewithal shall we be clothed? ³² (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. ³³ But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. ³⁴ Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.” Matthew 6:25-34

You heavenly Father knows what you need and don't need and he will provide those needs for you.

I've known many family who will carry on and on about God not providing for them and that they need this or that but when the truth be known. The monies that they get, provided by God they use for wants instead of need. We must be good stewards of what the Lord provides for us. The psalmist had it so true when he wrote “I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.” I too have never seen the righteous forsaken, nor begging bread. (Psalm 37:25)

Our thoughts shouldn't be about the things of this world, if they are, then we need to question ourselves whether we love this world and the things of this world because God's Word tells us that if we do that it is idolatry (1 John 2:15-17) because we have elevated the world and the things of this world above God.

What we are to be doing is seeking the kingdom of God and HIS righteousness. Then we will have meet to eat that others know not of, our meat is to do the will of the father and finish his work. (John 4:32-34)

When we are concerned about tomorrow Matthew 6:34 is showing us that this is evil and the next already has enough evil why add to it a defiled mind by not trusting in the Father.

We must remember that “He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?” (Romans 8:32)

Let's have our conversations be without coveting and be content with what we have, remember our Father will never leave us nor forsake us. When we remember He won't forsake us and live in that. We can boldly say that The Lord is my helper and I will not fear what man can do to me. (Hebrews 13:5-6)

When we start to feel that burden, that worry creep up on us we must cast our burden upon our Father, and He will sustain us. (Psalm 55:22)

For some of you your flesh nature is thinking where will or how will he take care of me? There are so many ways; which are all miracles.

Giving you from others wealth. Isaiah 23:18

Bring animals to sustain you. 1 Kings 17

Multiplying what you have. Matthew 14:13-21, Mark 6:30-44, Luke 9:10-17, John 6:1-15

Having it drop from the sky. Exodus 16

A miraculous act of another. John 2:1-11

In closing Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil." (Proverbs 3:5-7)
