

Sandwiched In Your Heart

The follower of Christ draws to their selves the love of others not because they slavishly desires it, but because of the fact that they obey Christ's divine law: "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom" Luke 6:38.

"A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which is good; ... for the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks". Luke 6:45

Luke 6:45 also states that "an evil man out of evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which is evil" this part is sandwiched right in the middle of this scripture.

My question this morning is what is sandwiched in the middle of our hearts?

Our words should speak life into others, should lift others up. There is so much in the world to tear us down, let's be the voice in all the noise that speaks hope, purpose and truth into the lives we come in contact with.

"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer." Psalms 19:14

Father in the name of Jesus Christ I pray that you will teach us to take every thought captive and subject it to your obedience and that the meditation of our hearts will be acceptable to you. That the abundance of the out flow of our hearts is only the inflow of your heart. And your rivers of life will flow out of us to reach thousands. In Jesus' Name I pray. Amen.

Let the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart, be acceptable to you my God. Let the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart, be pleasing and acceptable. For you are my God, my strength my redeemer, you are God of everything. I love you so, teach me your ways, make my everyday clean.

Song inspired early 2012 sung in Booneville, KY June 2012