

When the Hour was Come

James 1:6 “But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.”

Unbelief can be very blind, but faith can see through a stone wall. Faith when it is moved by the power of God can laugh when trouble is on.

It is marvelous when God is leading, how perfectly everything works into the plan.

He can make all things work together for good to them that love God. He has a way of arranging His plan, and when God comes in, you always know it was a day you live in God. Oh, to live in God! There is a vast difference between living in God and living in speculation and hope. There is something better than speculation. “They that know their God shall be strong and do exploits, and God would have us know Him.

Daniel 11:32 “but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. “

Luke 22:14 “And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.”

Luke 22:26-27 “he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. ²⁷ For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.”

Luke 22:29 “And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;”

“When the hour was come” – that was the most wonderful hour. There never was an hour and never will be an hour like that hour. What an hour it was! It was the hour of pass creation under the blood. It was an hour of destruction of demon power. It was an hour appointed for life coming out of death. It was an hour when all that ever lived came under a glorious covering of the blood. It was an hour when all the world was coming into emancipation by the blood. It was an hour in world history when it emerged from dark chaos, and wonderful hour! Praise God for that hour! It was a dark hour for Him, but a wonderful light dawned for us.

You are an awesome God. Thank you Lord for blessing me.
