

Coveting, Wanting, Discontent, or Displeasure

Questions to explore the heart:

Do you believe God has provided you with everything you need?

What are some things God has faithfully supplied you with?

What do you truly need that you do not have?

Comment(s) or Correction:

Do not love the things of this world. The things of this world will never bring contentment (pleasure / happiness) or satisfaction. The tiny satisfaction will fade (diminish / weaken) and away like the sun at the end of the day.

Scriptures to memorize:

Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 John 2:15

Let your conduct be without covetousness (greediness / materialism); be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." Hebrews 13:5

Now godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and clothing, with these we shall be content. 1 Timothy 6:6-8

"You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's." Exodus 20:17

And He said to them, "Take heed (listen to / notice) and beware of covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance (plenty) of the things he/she possesses (owns / acquires) .” Luke 12:15

Don't be greedy (hungry / ravenous) for the things of this life, for that is idolatry (worship / adoration). Colossians 3:5

Words of Encouragement:

Be content with what you have – contentment allows you to enjoy what God has given you.
