

Disobeying, Refusing to Comply, or Breaking the Rules

Questions to explore the heart:

Are you obeying or disobeying?

How did you disobey?

How does God want you to obey?

Comment(s) or Correction:

When you obey, you should obey all the way, right away and with a happy spirit.

When you disobey me you are disobeying God and it will not go well with you. I love you too much to allow you to disobey.

Scriptures to memorize:

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. "Honor (respect / admiration) your father and mother," which is the first commandment (directive, order, instruction) with promise: "that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth." Ephesians 6:1-3

Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourself for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. Hebrews 13:17

Do not withhold correction from a child, for if you beat him/her with a rod, he/she will not die. You shall beat him/her with a rod, and deliver his/her soul from hell. Proverbs 23:13-14

He/She who despises the word will be destroyed, but he/she who fears the commandment will be rewarded. Proverbs 13:13

Poverty and shame will come to him/her who disdains correction, but he/she who regards a rebuke will be honored. Proverbs 13:18

He/She who spares his/her rod hates his/her son, but he/she who loves him/her disciplines him/her promptly (quickly, swiftly & without delay). Proverbs 13:24

He/She who disdains (despises, scorns or holds in contempt) instruction despises his/her own soul, but he/she who heeds (listens to, regards, or takes note of) rebuke (reprimand, reprove, and correction) gets understanding. Proverbs 15:32

Words of Encouragement:

Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. Colossians 3:20
