

Holy Spirit message after reading John 12:37-40 given 04/12/15 ~4:00am.

You see and it frustrates you that others who claim me don't see it but they know me not. They simply know of me but I have no place in them. They spend much of their time doing what is right in their eyes and claim it unto me. But I tell you, it is dung. They heap unto me piles and piles of this and the smell so fills my nostrils that I must turn my face from them.

But you my dear beloved, know me and hear me. I cannot say you always obey me or honor me but I see the desire of your heart and it is pure. Now walk in the light, as I am in the light, harken to my voice and do my bidding; the time is short.

Oh ye of little faith, know ye not that you need not have a mountain of faith but a mustard seed. Which I have already given you. Walk in my faith not in yours. Your own faith and abilities are worthless to me. It is I in you that makes all things come about.

When you rely on the abilities of your hands, mind, strength; you are not relying on me but relying on your flesh. When you are in the flesh, you can never please me. Unless you come in spirit, you will never see, nor understand the truth.

I want not rituals and repetitive speech, the much talk is a noise, I can do without. Yes, I want you to come to me; yes, I want to commune with you but leave your flesh behind, leave your carnal ways behind, come to me in spirit and in truth.

Stop looking to the right and to the left, can anyone add a day or moment to your life? Will anyone but me save your soul from hell?

Why do you listen to the talk, when you know it isn't me? Stop worrying so much of whether you will offend or not. I tell you, you have offended and it is me you have offended.

So much of this world has a place in your mind. You think and ponder the things of this world. But you are no longer of this world. I have anointed you and have consecrated you as my holy vessel unto the people.

Do not question any longer but live and move and breathe; have all your being in me.

I have chosen you and pulled you out and have separated you, there is nothing better, there is nothing greater, there is no higher calling; you are the called.

Now walk in it. Repent of your carnal thinking and walk by the Spirit.

I have great and mighty things I will perform using my anointed. Hold fast to the promises I have given you, do not doubt, they will come to pass. You will see my glory and my wonders will amaze. The whirlwind is approaching and the fire will fall, make ready. Make Ready!

When given this message the Holy Spirit told me I must read it to New Mt. Calvary.

We went to New Mt. Calvary Sunday morning and they usually ask for testimonies and I was ready to stand up and read what the Lord had given me but they did not ask for anyone to testify. But the Holy Spirit showed up in such a sweet peace. The singing part of the service probably lasted for 45 minutes and maybe 10 minutes of that the minister was just taken up with the spirit and sang his own Holy Spirit song.

I am in my pew and the pew becomes too small, I move my son farther down the pew so I can move but soon that space is too limited I just have to get out of there, I need more room to move. I end up walking up and down the aisle just praising the Lord, tears streaming down my face. The very real presence of God was so strong, powerful and so sweetly peaceful. Awesome. The praise part came to a close and the Pastor got up referenced a different scripture but then proceeded to bring the same message in different words but many of them the same as the words the Holy Spirit had just given me that morning. I found myself speaking out affirming so much of what the minister said and then joined him and the rest of the church at the front as we all rededicated ourselves a new to God. Then I speak to him to the side and ask if I might read some words of affirmation to the congregation about this message. He welcomed me on stage and gave me the pulpit. I read what the Holy Spirit had spoken that morning and it was everything he had just preached on, some of the words were different, many were exactly the same. The pastor and I had no communication with each other for weeks if not months.

Our God is awesome and we that call ourselves Christians need to repent, then live and move and breathe and have our being in Him only.
