

I Count It All But Loss

“Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.” Philippians 3:8-11

If we can but grasp this and all of Philippians 3, WOW what a moving of God.

Everything in this world that you can see, hear, touch, taste, or smell is nothing; yes, I said nothing. All things are nothing when compared to the excellency of Jesus Christ; Paul says that the things of this world are nothing but dung (poop). We’ve got to get our heads out of the toilet and see the truth for what it is. So many of us are striving, running here and there trying to make it, trying to take it, trying to get it but we are missing the truth. We are spending our lives forever learning and never perceiving the truth.

Fulfilment, peace, hope, joy, love... only come by one means and that is through the cross. It is not by means of a “do and don’t” list, a set of ritual prayers, a labyrinth and stopping at each station, it’s not repeating the same couple of words to bring you into a meditative / hypnotic state. These are ways of man, who are wise in their own eyes; trying to get to the truth but the truth is so simple that it is rejected.

Time is short and rejection time is soon over and where will you spend eternity? Who or what is the most important thing to you?

Do you count it all as loss, all as valuable as dung; except Jesus Christ.

“I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord.”

Father I pray in the name of Jesus Christ for us to have our minds open to the truth and set us free oh Lord. Amen.
