

Revival – Is Here!

God is coming forth with power. The latter rain is appearing.

There must be no coming down from the cross but a going on from faith to faith and from glory to glory with an increasing diligence to be found in Him without spot and blameless.

2 Peter 3:14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

A divine plan working through you. The husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of heaven until he receive the early and the latter rain.

James 5:7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

Jesus is waiting to do all. Worship is higher than fellowship.

The Calmness of meeting with Jesus, all fears are gone. His tender mercy and indescribable peace is ours. I have all if I have Jesus. All God's plans for us are to the end of a yielded will.

The early and the latter rain appears. The early rain is to make the seed die. To come to an end. And out of the ashes the great fire of consummation that shall burn in the heart of the people, the Word of the living God producing the Christ by the breath of the Spirit. Then the latter rain and universal outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The coming of the Lord is at hand.

God awaits to move and shake all that can be shaken, the signs following those that believe, and outpouring, mighty and glorious. The early rain has been to get us ready for that which is to come. Be prepared – a vessel to pour out torrents. The Holy Ghost wakes up every passion, permits every trial. His object is to make the vessel pure. All must die before a manifestation of God unthought of, undreamt of. It's a call to martyrdom, to the death of spirit, soul and body. To the death. The choice is before you, decided, accept, the path for death to life. Absolute abandonment for a divine equipment for the early and the latter rain appears.

Isaiah 11 is God's equipment for the understanding of the worldwide purposes of God, for the loveliness of Jesus and the glory of God. Revelation to a perishing world, where there is no vision the people perish. Wake-up, the air is full of revival, but we look for a mighty outpouring, sharing all that can be shaken. Take all, but give me vision and revelation of the purposes of God and a wonderful burning love. It is difficult with words to tell of the freedom of the Holy Ghost in revealing the love of Jesus as a pivot point, a swivel, and a fulcrum.

This surging life, this uttermost death for uttermost life. The early and the latter rain appears, we count those happy to endure. Count it not strange, for the fiery breath of revival is coming. There is a ripple on the lake, a murmur in the air. The price is tremendous. We must seal the testimony with our blood.

Be sown first, then comes the revelation of God with eternal issues for multitudes. The latter rain appears. All moves before the people God has moved, and millions are ingathered and the heart of God is satisfied.
